Terms and Conditions of Employment

The Company and the employee hereby agree to the following terms and conditions of employment:

1. Salary and Benefits

The first review of employee's compensation will be:

a. For employees with their Effective Date between April to December of a financial year: Based on their performance, the increment review will be effective July of the following financial year for the performance review period of April to March of that financial year or from Effective Date to March which will be paid out prorated for the period of service of that financial year.

b. For employees with their Effective Date between Jan to March of a financial year: The increment is effective July of the following financial year on a prorated basis.

c. Review of the compensation payable to employees for successive financial years will be subject to Company's policy and sole discretion and such reviewed compensation may be higher or lower than the compensation paid in the previous financial year depending upon the overall performance of the Company and other market parameters.

d. In addition to compensation, the employee will be entitled to receive other benefits as applicable under the Company policy. The Company will however, at its sole discretion, be entitled to amend, vary, and prospectively modify any of the terms and conditions of the policy with regard to the benefits offered to the employee.

e. The term 'financial year' denotes the period starting from 1st April to 31st of March.

f. Employee's compensation is a private and confidential matter between the employee and the Company and should not be discussed with or disclosed to others.

2. Assignments/Transfer /Deputation

a. Though the employee has been engaged for a specific position, the Company reserves the right at its sole discretion to assign them temporarily or permanently on training / deputation / secondment / transfer / assignments to any other locations, departments or units of the Company or its associate companies, subsidiaries, group companies or client locations, whether in India or abroad as may be necessary. In such cases, the terms and conditions of service applicable to the new assignment will govern.

b. Employee may, upon written instruction from the Company, be required to enter into a direct agreement or undertaking with a client, to whom they may be assigned/seconded/deputed, accepting restrictions which such client may reasonably require for the protection of its legitimate interests.

c. As an employee of the Company, you agree and understand that you are not and shall not become the employee or agent of any client at whose premises you may be deployed, at any time during your services with the Company. The Company bears sole responsibility for payment of all of your compensation, your insurance and other benefits as applicable for you. You acknowledge that you shall not be entitled to claim any employee benefits from or exercise any rights against any client.

d. You hereby agree to work at the company's location specified in the offer letter. You also acknowledge that the company may require the employee to relocate to another location at any time.

e. Mere acceptance of offer does not constitute a right in the employment and once the date of onboarding/ commencement of employment is communicated, then employment with the Company will commence.

3. WorkTimings

The Company operates five days a week, Monday through Friday. The Company will have its normal business hours from 08:45 hrs. to 18:15 hrs. with a lunch break of 30 minutes. Since the Company caters to global clients that may operate on 24X7 basis, employees may be required to work during non-standard hours. The work timings may differ in accordance with business requirements of the Company. The work timing will be intimated to the employee by their manager. The employee shall provide details regarding the utilisation of their time as per standard Company practice.

a. If the employee is absent from performing their duties either from the premises of the Company or otherwise beyond a period of 3 working days without obtaining proper approval from the Company or as per Company policy, they will be deemed to have abandoned their employment on will and may be subject to a disciplinary inquiry and/or action.

4. Notice and Termination

a. If at any event the employee chooses to voluntarily resign from employment, the employee may do so by providing three (3) months prior written notice. ANNEXURE D

ACCEPTABLE USER GUIDELINES
ANNEXURE 1

PRIVATE INFORMATION

The employee agrees with the Company that:

The work for which I am employed is and will be of a private nature, and in connection with the performance of my services on behalf of Company, its subsidiaries and affiliates (together with their predecessors and successors, the "Company"), the Company may make available to me information of a private nature as to the Company and Company's clients and prospective clients business, strategies, methodologies, operations, technologies (including computer software), financial affairs, organizational and personnel matters, policies, procedures, trade secrets, programs, operations, clients, prospective clients, employees and other non-public matters, including those concerning third parties ("Private Information"). I agree that I will receive strict confidence all such Private Information belongings to the Company or to its clients or prospective clients. I further agree to use my best efforts to maintain and to assist the Company in maintaining the confidentiality of all such Private Information, and to prevent it from coming into unauthorized hands.

The employee further agrees that:

I. I will neither copy nor distribute any material, or other information constituting Private Information which comes into my possession as result of my employment by the Company, other than for the Company use;

II. I will not during the period of employment by the Company or at any time thereafter, directly or indirectly, disclose to others and/or use for my own benefit or for the benefit of others, Private Information acquired by me during the period of my employment, except to the extent as may be reasonable necessary in the ordinary course of performing my duties as an employee of the Company;

III. I will not disclose to the Company or attempt to induce the Company to use any Private Information or material to which the Company is not entitled;

IV. Upon termination of my employment with the Company, I will return to the Company all materials and information that constitutes Private Information and any copies thereof and certify to the Company that I no longer have any rights to such materials or information, and I will represent that the original and all copies of such materials and information have been returned to the Company;

V. I agree to abide by the ISMS policies and procedures as published by the organization from time to time.

ANNEXURE 2

a) The employee agrees that:

I will not (1) for a period of one year after the termination of this agreement, directly or indirectly solicit to provide or provide any professional services such as those provided by the Company for anyone who is a client of the Company anytime during the twelve months prior to my leaving the Company and for whom I provide any service as an employee of the Company during the five years prior to my leaving. (2) for a period of eighteen months after the termination of this agreement directly or indirectly, without the prior written consent of the Company, solicit for employment with myself or any firm or entity with which I am associated, any employee of the Company or otherwise disrupt, impair, damage, or interfere with the Company's relationship with its employee; or (3) upon the termination of my employment remove, retain, copy, or utilize any confidential, privileged or proprietary information, trade secrets, or other property of the Company, including but not limited to manuals, software, data, files, client lists or materials, or other data, publications or materials. The non-compete provisions of this paragraph will not apply to a client of the Company or any predecessor of the Company for whom I performed services or with whom I had significant professional contact prior to joining the Company. If the Company requests me to terminate my relationship with the Company, the non-compete provisions of this paragraph will not apply to me with respect to those clients of the Company, if any, as to which the Company and I reach mutual agreement.

b) The employee and the Company acknowledge and agree that the duration and geographic scope of covenants contained in paragraph (a) are fair and reasonable. Accordingly, the employee and the Company agree that, in the event that any of the covenants contained in paragraph (a) are nevertheless determined by a court or arbitration body to be unenforceable because of the duration or geographic scope thereof, the arbitration body or count making such determination may reduce such duration and/or scope to the extent necessary to enable such arbitration body or court to determine that such covenant is reasonable and enforceable, and to enforce such covenant as so amended.

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

Following is a statement of the Company's policy with respect to intellectual property:
Except as otherwise may be agreed by the Company in writing, in consideration of the employment of the employee by the Company, and free of any additional obligations of the Company to make additional payment to the employee, the employee agrees to irrevocably assign to the Company any and all inventions, software, manuscripts, documentation, improvements or other intellectual property, whether or not protectible by any national or state laws relating to the protection of intellectual property, relating to the present or future business of the Company that are developed by the employee prior to the termination of his/her employment with the Company, either alone or jointly with others, and whether or not developed during normal business hours or arising in the scope or his/her duties of employment. The employee agrees that all such inventions, software, manuscripts, documentation, improvement or other intellectual proper shall be and remain the sole and exclusive property of the Company. The employee hereby agrees to execute such assignments and other documents as the Company may consider appropriate to vest all right, title and interest therein to the Company. This provision does not apply to an invention for which no equipment, supplies, facility, or trade secret information of the Company was used and which was developed entirely on the employee's own time, unless (a) the invention relates (i) directly to the business of the Company or (ii) to the Company's actual or demonstrably anticipated research or development or (b) the invention results from any work performed by the employee for the Company. The employee agrees that all services performed by the employee for the Company shall be the original work of the employee and shall not incorporate any third-party materials or work in which the employee or any third party asserts an ownership interest without the express written consent of the Company.
